

Applicant Tracking System (ATS)?

An ATS helps companies manage, organize and sort through job applications.

By learning how to craft a resume with strong keywords tailored for applicant tracking systems (ATS), you can ensure your application stands out rather than getting overlooked. A clean, well-organized resume not only improves readability but also increases your chances of landing an interview for a job or internship.